

ST. PETER ANGLICAN CHURCH

228 S. Dogwood Street

Campbell River, BC V9W 6Y7

250 286-1613

September 30 & October 4, 2020 18th Sunday after Pentecost

The Diocese of British Columbia acknowledges that for thousands of years the Coast Salish, Nuu-chah-nulth, and Kwakwaka'wakw peoples have walked gently on the unceded territories where we now live, work, worship, and play. We seek a new relationship with the first peoples here, one based in honour and respect, and we thank them for their hospitality.

Celebrating full communion with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada

The Gathering of the Community

Priest The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 and the love of God,
 and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
 be with you all.

People And also with you.

Collect of the Day

The priest offers a prayer that reminds us of the major themes of the day

Today we Pray

In the World-wide Anglican Communion

Pray for the Anglican Church of Tanzania The Most Revd Dr Maimbo Mndolwa - Archbishop of Tanzania & Bishop of Tanga

In Our Province

Diocese of New Westminster - Archbishop Melissa Skelton.

In our Diocese

The Rev. Anna Greenwood-Lee, our bishop-elect, & Ansley, the diocesan administrator. The people of S. John the Baptist, Duncan - Brian Evans & Heather Cutten.

In our Community

We give thanks for service animals who serve the blind, the deaf and others with particular needs. We give thanks for pets that bring delight to our homes.

The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Exodus 20:1-4;7-9

Psalm: Psalm 19

The Psalm will be read by the Lay Assistant

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-46

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon

A silence for reflection follows the sermon.

Prayers of the People

The congregation is invited to add their own petitions in the silences provided.

The Peace

Priest The Peace of the Lord be with you all.

People And also with you.

The sharing of the peace is a sign of reconciliation and respect. Since we cannot shake hands we can follow an older custom of bowing.

As we do this we recognize and honour the image of God in which we are created.

Celebration of the Eucharist

Altar is prepared with the offerings of bread and wine. the priest then prays a prayer offering these gifts to God.

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The priest continues with one of the Eucharistic prayers from the authorized books.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might

Heaven and earth are full of your glory,

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord,

Hosanna in the highest.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith.

People Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

As the Eucharistic Prayer ends the priest elevates the bread and chalice.

Priest As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

People Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom,

the power and the glory are yours,

now and forever. Amen

Breaking of the Bread

The priest breaks the bread so it may be shared

Priest Creator of all, you gave us golden fields of wheat,
Whose many grains we have gathered and made

People So may your church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Priest The gifts of God for the people of God

People Thanks be to God

The priest prepares the bread so it may be shared. Members of the congregation will be directed forward by the sides people, please wait until you are invited. Only the bread is distributed. Traditional Anglican teaching is that if we receive in one kind we have received the fullness of the Sacrament. Gluten –free wafers are available on request.

Being and Building Community—Zoom Meet and Greet

An opportunity to meet and greet Cathie, our interim priest, and see one another again. Many people find being shut-in by COVID and their own vulnerabilities quite painful. Meeting online can help some.

Zoom is easy on your laptop, or on your tablet, or phone. The first time you use it you will download the program, after that you simply click on the link. Please find a family member or friend to show you how if you have trouble the first time.

Email catherinehall@cdafoe.ca to receive the link for the gathering.

Thanksgiving after Communion

When all have received Communion we give thanks.

Priest Let us pray.

All who are able stand and the community prays in silence. Then the priest prays the prayer of thanksgiving after Communion.

Priest Glory to God
People whose power working in us,
can do infinitely more
than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Dismissal

We have been renewed and strengthened by Word and Sacrament and now we are sent out into the world to be ministers of God in our homes our workplaces and community.

Assistant: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.
