November 8 and 11, 2020
23rd Sunday after Pentecost Remembrance

The Diocese of British Columbia acknowledges that for thousands of years the Coast Salish, Nuu-chah-nulth, and Kwakwaka'wakw peoples have walked gently on the unceded territories where we now live, work, worship, and play. We seek a new relationship with the first peoples here, one based in honour and respect, and we thank them for their hospitality.

Celebrating full communion with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada

The Gathering of the Community

Priest The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People And also with you.

Priest Almighty God,

All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

People Glory to God, Glory to God; Glory in the highest, alleluia, alleluia

Collect of the Day

The priest offers a prayer that reminds us of the major themes of the day

The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Joshua 24:1-3a; 14-25

Psalm: Psalm 78:1-7

The Psalm will be read by the Lay Assistant; when the Psalm concludes the people say:

Glory to God, Source of all being, eternal Word and Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon

A silence for reflection follows the sermon.

One minute silence and Act of Remembrance

Prayers of the People

The congregation is invited to add their own petitions in the silences provided.

Confession

The priest invites the people to confession.

Priest Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The priest pronounces the absolution.

The Peace

Priest The Peace of the Lord be with you all.

People And also with you.

We share this ancient sign of reconciliation and respect by making a profound bow to one another.

Celebration of the Eucharist

Altar is prepared with the offerings of bread and wine. the priest then prays a prayer offering these gifts to God.

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The priest continues with one of the Eucharistic prayers from the authorized books.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might

Heaven and earth are full of your glory,

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord,

Hosanna in the highest.

Therefore, according to his command,

People we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory.

As the Eucharistic Prayer ends the priest elevates the bread and chalice.

Priest As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

People Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom,

the power and the glory are yours,

now and forever. Amen

Breaking of the Bread

The priest breaks the bread so it may be shared

Priest I am the bread of life, says the Lord. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst.

People Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him.

Priest The gifts of God for the people of God

People Thanks be to God

All are welcome at the Lord's Table in this place.

Gluten-free wafers are available on request.

During this time, when we are protecting ourselves and one another as best we can, we follow a new procedure for Communion:

- We receive only the Bread and we understand that we have received the fullness of the Sacrament.
- Please remain in your seat until the usher directs you forward for Communion
- Use the centre aisle to go forward and to return
- Remove your mask as you approach and replace it as you return
- You may remain in your pew and Communion will be brought to you if you prefer. Please tell the usher.

St. Peter Anglican Church is part of the world-wide Anglican Communion through our membership in the Diocese of Islands and Inlets, and through our Bishop.

Thanksgiving after Communion

When all have received Communion we give thanks.

Priest Let us pray.

All who are able stand and the community prays in silence. Then the priest prays the prayer of thanksgiving after Communion.

Priest Glory to God

People whose power working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
 Glory to God from generation to generation,
 in the church and in Christ Jesus,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Dismissal

We have been renewed and strengthened by Word and Sacrament and now we are sent out into the world to be ministers of God in our homes our workplaces and community.

Assistant: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Inspired by God and the Example of Jesus to serve our community by offering love and acceptance to everyone.

Placing a list of participants in the leaflet helps us all to get to know one another better—especially when we are all wearing masks. This list also reminds us that it takes many people to make a worship service happen. Some of them are visible in the service, some of them are working quietly behind the scenes—like our Altar Guild members and our custodian. Please let Cathie or Annie know if there is a name or a role missing or entered in error.

Why do we do That?

Remembrance Sunday and the observances of Remembrance Day in the community are important.
Most of us now don't remember WWII because we were born after the war, or because we were children when it was happening. But finding a way for us to 'remember' is very important.

First of all we do it for respect. Many gave their lives so that there would be freedom, and many more engaged in war work as civilians. We need to continue to show our respect and gratitude for their sacrifices.

We do these acts of remembrance so we will be aware of the cost of war and work to prevent further wars. We are not very good at this in the world, but it would be worse if we didn't remind ourselves of the cost.

We worship a God of peace here at St. Peter's; God is

Advent Study Series

Today we Pray

In the World-wide Anglican Communion

Pray for the Church of the Province of West Africa The Most Revd Dr Jonathan Bau-Bau Bonaparte Hart - Primate & Metropolitan, Church of the Province of West Africa.

For Linda our Primate and Mark, our Indigenous Archbishop

In our Diocese and Province

For Bishop-elect Anna Greenwood-Lee & Diocesan Administrator Ansley Tucker . Parish of Salt Spring Island - Gyllian Davies. Territory of the People Anglican Church - Bishop Lincoln McKoen.

For Melissa our Metropolitan,

In Our Parish

We pray for the silent ministry of prayer exercised by the prayer circle. We pray for Kathy Fitzsimmons, their leader, and all who commit themselves to this ministry.

In our Community

We pray for our Armed Forces and the RCMP and all other peace officers. We give thanks for all who have served in times of war or military action, especially veterans of World Wars and Korea.

In the World

We pray for refugees, wherever they are, and for aid workers who have less support than they need.

Staying Safe in the time of COVID 19

There is a detailed plan for how we stay safe in church in the time of pandemic; you can view it on the bulletin board.

We have also formed a small team of medical people who will advise the priest and wardens if we need to stop having in-person worship. This may need to happen if there is an outbreak in Campbell River. So far we are doing well.

WELCOME!
