A Service of the Word

This liturgy is based on the

*Anglican Church of Canada Book of Alternative Services

Notes for Zoom participants: As we begin our service all voices will be muted. Those with speaking parts will unmute themselves. Please do respond to the people's part in your home, please do sing joyously when the hymn is played.

Please note that there are announcements in the leaflet following the service.

As always, we will light a candle and ring a bell as our service begins.

Officiant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 the love of God,
 and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
 be with you all.

People And also with you.

Canticle

Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; * serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

Know this: The Lord himself is God; * he himself has made us, and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise; * give thanks to him and call upon his name.

For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; * and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Hymn

Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

Come, join the dance of Trinity, before all worlds begun...
The interweaving of the Three, the Father, Spirit, Son;
The universe of space and time did not arise by chance,
But as the Three, in love and hope, made room within their dance.

Come, see the face of Trinity, newborn in Bethlehem;
The bloodied by a crown of thorns outside Jerusalem.
The dance of Trinity is meant for human flesh and bone;
When fear confines the dance in death, God rolls away the stone.

Come, speak aloud of Trinity, as wind and tongues of flame
Set people free at Pentecost to tell the Savior's name.
We know the yoke of sin and death, our necks have worn it smooth;
Go tell the world of weight and woe that we are free to move!

Within the dance of Trinity, before all worlds begun,
We sing the praises of the Three, the Father, Spirit, Son.
Let voices rise and interweave, by love and hope set free
To shape in song this joy, this life; the dance of Trinity.

Psalm 29

LA Bill Ritchie

1 Ascribe to the Lord, you gods, * ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

2 Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; * worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders; * the Lord is upon the mighty waters.

4 The voice of the Lord is a powerful voice; * the voice of the Lord is a voice of splendour.

5 The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar trees; * the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon;

6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, * and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.

7 The voice of the Lord splits the flames of fire; the voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness; * the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

8 The voice of the Lord makes the oak trees writhe * and strips the forests bare.

9 And in the temple of the Lord * all are crying, "Glory!"

10 The Lord sits enthroned above the flood; * the Lord sits enthroned as king for evermore.

11 The Lord shall give strength to his people; * the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Sermon:

Hear O Israel

Hear, O Israel,

the Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart,

with all your soul,

with all your mind,

and with all your strength.

This is the first and the great commandment.

The second is like it:

Love your neighbour as yourself.

There is no commandment greater than these.

Hymn

Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

Holy, holy, holy!

Lord God Almighty

Early in the morning

Our song shall rise to Thee

Holy, holy, holy!

Merciful and mighty

God in three persons

Blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy!

Though the darkness hide thee

Though the eye of sinful man

Thy glory may not see

Only Thou art holy

There is none beside Thee

Perfect in power, in love and purity see next page

Holy, holy, holy!
Lord God Almighty
Oh thy works shall praise Thy name
In earth and sky and sea

Holy, holy, holy!
Merciful and mighty
God in three persons
Blessed Trinity
Oh God in three persons
Blessed Trinity!

Prayers of the People

The Peace

A wave, a smile, a nod of the head are all fitting expressions of your intention for peace for yourself and for each other.

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

People: And also with you.

In Thanksgiving for all God's blessings in our lives we pray:

Living God, receive all we offer you this day. Grant that hearing your word and responding to your Spirit, we may share in your divine life. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

officiant As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

People (sung) Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

Glory to God

Whose power working in us

Can do infinitely more

Than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation

In the Church and in Christ Jesus

Fore ever and ever. Amen.

Important dates

- June 2 7:00 PM Liturgy Committee
- June 6 Bishop's visit at our Sunday service
- June 14 Dragon Boat Festival
- June 17 7:30 PM Mensa Christi
- June 20 Parish Council

The office will open Wednesdays from 9:30 to noon. You are welcome to bring you offering or your food bank donations to the church during these hours.

Rick Monchak will be outside the church each Sunday from 11:00 to 11:30 for some weeks to collect your offering in person.

The End is Near....

Or so we trust and believe.

The Provincial Heath Officer has given us a time-frame for re-opening the province for business, worship, and recreation. I know we all look forward to this.

The Bishop is asking us not to move forward too quickly and risk having to shut down again. She believes that it is reasonable to expect to be able to return to worship in the church building —perhaps with restrictions—in September. The bishop's letter is available on the Diocesan Website and St. Peter's Facebook page.

The Bishop and Archdeacons will met soon to make plans.

In the meantime we will be opening the office on Wednesdays from 9:30 to noon. COVID protocols will apply, we will wear masks and be socially distanced.

May God keep us all safe in these next months, and guide the work of those making decisions.

PWRDF is responding to an urgent appeal from the newly installed Archbishop of Jerusalem, Hosam Naoum, with funds for Al Ahli Hospital in Gaza, with a grant of $10,000.

The funds will assist with running generators and purchasing medicine and supplies to meet the crushing flow of injured and traumatized victims in this conflict. He also requests our prayers.

If you wish to assist go to pwrdf.org/give-today and click on Emergency Response and mention Gaza Hospital. You can also make your offering through the church using your envelope.

The foodbank needs our support. Non-perishable foods, baby food and formula, diapers, sanitary products for women. Or money. You can give in kind through the church and your financial donations can go through the church or direct to the food bank. You will get a tax receipt in either case.

Grass Roots, Kind Hearts feeds people who are in need: any meal feels good when you are hungry. Diana Hicks and her team work hard on this ministry, talk to her to offer help, give money to the church to buy food and other necessities.

Adult Christian Education

Education for Ministry

EfM is a program of theological education for lay people. We have some graduates in our parish already but we need more. The group is limited to 12 members. The cost is $350 per year. We will start in September. Please let David Fitzsimmons know if you are interested.

Mensa Christi

This means Table of the Lord. This is a monthly study group which will be led by David Fitzsimmons. It will be held on the third Thursday of each month at and 7:30 PM.

Proposed Labyrinth

Since the Annual Meeting in February there has been conversation about the possibility of a labyrinth on the church grounds. This would serve the needs of parish members in meditation and be available to people from the community as well. At our Parish Council Meeting on May 16 a proposal was brought forward by David Fitzsimmons.

According to the proposal the labyrinth would suit the site by the offices and be 30 feet across. The cost would be about $1000 for materials. A bench could be added for those who would like to sit to pray.

It could be a summer project for the parish where people could work together in a socially distanced environment to build the labyrinth.

A labyrinth is a classic meditation space. It is a place to make a symbolic pilgrimage, if you can't make a real one.

Parish Council is looking for 20 families to make a donation of money or time to the project. Will you be one?

Please let David Fitzsimmons know if you are interested.

Donations can be made to St. Peter's Anglican Church and marked for the Labyrinth Project.

The parish of St Peter Anglican Church is located on the unceded, traditional territory of the Ligwilda'xw people: the We Wai Kai, Wei Wai Kum, and Kwiakah First Nations, and the unceded traditional territory of the Klahoose First Nation. We seek a new relationship with the first peoples here; one based on honour and respect. We pray that we may live more deeply into the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.
