A Service of the Word

This liturgy is based on the

*Anglican Church of Canada Book of Alternative Services

We are still using safe practises. Social distancing is required, masks are required, there is no congregational singing. At the appropriate time Communion will be brought to you in your place.

Please note that there are announcements in the leaflet following the service.

Land acknowledgement—David Fitzsimmons

Celebrant      The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People      And also with you.

Celebrant      Almighty God,

All      to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen

Collect of the Day

Psalm 132

LA Jane Jennings

11 The Lord has sworn an oath to David; *
in truth, he will not break it:

12 "A son, the fruit of your body *
will I set upon your throne.

13 If your children keep my covenant and my testimonies that I shall teach them, *
their children will sit upon your throne for evermore."

14 For the Lord has chosen Zion, *
he has desired her for his habitation:

15 "This shall be my resting-place for ever; *
here will I dwell, for I delight in her.

16 I will surely bless her provisions, *
and satisfy her poor with bread.

17 I will clothe her priests with salvation, *
and her faithful people will rejoice and sing.

18 There will I make the horn of David flourish; *
I have prepared a lamp for my anointed.

19 As for his enemies, I will clothe them with shame; *
but as for him, his crown will shine."

Sermon:            The Rev. David Fitzsimmons

Hymn 378                      Kate Fitzsimmons and Lori Gooldrup

1 Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon the throne.
Hark! how the heav'nly anthem drowns
all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee,
and hail him as the matchless king,
through all eternity.

2 Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave
and rose victorious in the strife
for those he came to save.
His glories now we sing
who died, and rose on high,
who died, eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

3 Crown him the Lord of peace,
whose pow'r a scepter sways
from pole to pole that wars may cease, absorbed in prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end;
and round his pierced feet fair flow'rs of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

Confession

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ,

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;

God welcomes sinners and invites them to the table.

Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Peace

We return to a monastic custom as we bow to one another, reminding ourselves that each of us is made In the image of God.

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

People: And also with you.

For those present on Zoom this prayer of Spiritual Communion may be used.

In union, O God, with all your faithful people gathered wherever the eucharist is celebrated this day, I offer you praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption given to us through the life, death and resurrection of Christ, and for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I pray you come into my heart, my soul and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you. May I serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your promised reign of justice and peace; through Christ and in the unity of the Spirit. Amen.

When all have received the priest gives thanks.

Glory to God

The labyrinth is an ancient structure. There is one in the floor of Chartres Cathedral in France. It has often been used by those who want to make a pilgrimage but are not able to do so. This is a prayerful practice, mindful walking, praying your question or your desire.

The Labyrinth is not a puzzle, there is only one path to the centre, and one path from the centre back to the entrance.

Breaking News...

Worship Services to Return to the Sanctuary

Last Sunday the Liturgy Committee decided that worship services will return to the church beginning the First Sunday of Advent, November 28.

We need to follow the current COVID protocols:

50% of capacity (maximum 60 people)

Masks worn indoors at all times

No singing

Sign in at the door and sanitize hands.

We are requiring proof of vaccination at the door for any people over 11 years of age (Provincial Vaccination Card). We invite those who are not yet vaccinated to participate in the service by zoom.

Music Changes

The members of the Liturgy Committee have accepted responsibility for returning the books to the pew and we will be using the hymn books during the service. We will be reducing the number of hymns printed in the leaflet. If you attend by zoom and need to borrow a hymn book from the church you are welcome to stop by on Wednesday morning or call the office to ask for one to be brought to you.

During Advent we will be adding another hymn to the list and we will sing some Christmas carols through Advent.

Christmas Service

There will be one service on Christmas Eve. Please call or email the office to indicate whether you prefer 4:00 or 7:00.

Preparing for a Return

Saturday, November 27 at 2:00 PM, we will be holding a walk-through rehearsal of the Sunday service. Please plan to attend if you are a reader, an LA, a greeter, or a member of the Liturgy Committee. We will need people to serve as ushers, especially during the Communion distribution process. Please plan to attend and recall how to serve God and the community in this way. A zoom rehearsal will also be taking place and folk can access this using the same link as for the Sunday service.

Remember, it has been a year since we worshipped in that space, we need to remind ourselves.

Today, after Church

Gift Baskets are available online on our website. There are some very beautiful and thoughtful baskets available and a range of prices. These will make lovely gifts for family and friends. Please check out the online offering and consider purchasing one. Tell your neighbours and family as well.

Pie Sale

ACW members are offering fresh baked pies for sale, to your order. Many flavours are available. Initial quality control tests indicate that the standard is high! Speak to Lois Tirebuck or Frances Payne for more information. They are asking only $10 per pie.

The Church Responds to BC Emergency

We have received letters and promises of prayer from our own Bishop, from our Metropolitan Lynne McNaughton, from our Primate, Linda Nicholls, and from National Indigenous Archbishop Mark MacDonald.

Our Primate and Archbishop MacDonald will be hosting a national prayer vigil today, Sunday, beginning at 2:30 our local time. You can be part of it though this link:

Primate and National Indigenous Archbishop to host Sunday prayer service for B.C. - The Anglican Church of Canada

The Provincial House of Bishops offers this prayer:

God of compassion, we pray for all who have suffered losses and trauma because of this storm. We pray for those stranded or evacuated, and for those who have lost homes and livelihood. Bless and strengthen those providing food, shelter, and care; and all first responders and crews still working to rescue people and animals. We give thanks for the courage and generosity of those responding to the crisis, for all the acts of neighborliness and kindness. God of Life, give courage and healing to all who have been affected. Give all leaders and responders endurance and resourcefulness. May we each find ways to bring your comfort, hope and calm in the midst of this anxious time. Strengthen our resolve to make the changes necessary to care for your Earth. In the name of Christ our healer. Amen.
