A Service of the Word

This service of Morning Prayer is from a new form for Morning Prayer called "Pray Without Ceasing". It is published by the Faith, Worship, and Ministry Committee and authorized for use by General Synod in 2019.

Land acknowledgement

As always, we will light a candle and ring a bell as our service begins.

O Lord, open our lips
and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

O God, make speed to save us.

O God, make haste to help us.

Glory to God, Source of all being, eternal Word and Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Invitatory Psalm: Psalm 95.1-7

Come, sing to the Holy One !

Shout for joy to the Rock who defends us!

Come into the Presence with thanksgiving!

Raise our voices in joyful hymns!

Truly the Holy One is a great God,

supreme above all gods,

in whose hands are the ends of the earth and the heights of all the mountains.

The sea belongs to God who made it,
whose hands formed the dry land.

Come, worship and bow down;
kneel in the presence of our Creator.

Truly, truly, our God is the Holy One, whose people we are,
all in God's pasture.

Hymn 151 Kate Fitzsimmons, Lori Gooldrup

1 All poor folk and humble, all lame folk who stumble,
Come haste ye, and be not afraid; for Jesus, our treasure,
Whose love passes measure, in lowly poor manger was laid.
Though wise men around him laid rich gifts around him,
Yet oxen they gave him their hay;
and Jesus in beauty accepted their duty: contented in manger he lay.

Refrain:

Then haste we to show him the praises we owe him;
Our service he ne'er can despise, Whose love still is able
To show us that stage where softly in manger he lies.

2 The Christ child will lead us, the good Shepherd feed us,
And with us abide till his day. Then hatred he'll banish, then sorrow will vanish, and death and despair flee away.
And he shall reign ever, and nothing shall sever
from us the great love of our King.
His peace and his pity shall bless his fair city; his praises we ever shall sing.

Psalm 19

LA Jane Jennings

1 The heavens declare the glory of God, *
and the firmament shows his handiwork.

2 One day tells its tale to another, *
and one night imparts knowledge to another.

3 Although they have no words or language, *
and their voices are not heard,

4 Their sound has gone out into all lands, *
and their message to the ends of the world.

5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; *
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.

6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; *
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.

7 The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul; *
the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

8 The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever; *
the judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, *
sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
and in keeping them there is great reward.

First reading: Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

Holy Word, Holy Wisdom.

The Canticle

Blessed are you, the God of our ancestors, *
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed is your holy and glorious name, *
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you, in your holy and glorious temple, *
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you who look into the depths, *
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you, enthroned upon the cherubim, *
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you on your heavenly throne, *
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you in the heights of heaven, *
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever

Hymn 153

1 Good Christians all, rejoice with heart and soul and voice!
Listen now to what we say: Jesus Christ is born today;
Ox and ass before him bow and he is in the manger now!
Christ is born today; Christ is born today!

2 Good Christians all, rejoice with heart and soul and voice!
Hear the news of endless bliss: Jesus Christ was born for this;
He has opened heaven's door and we are blessed forevermore!
Christ was born for this; Christ was born for this.

3 Good Christians all, rejoice with heart and soul and voice!
Now you need not fear the grave; Jesus Christ was born to save:
Come at his most gracious call to find salvation one and all!
Christ was born to save; Christ was born to save.

The Collect of the Day

Gathering our prayers and praises into one,
let us pray as our Saviour taught us,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn 101

1 Hail to the Lord's anointed, great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed, his reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression, to set the captive free,
To take away transgression, and use in equity.

2 He shall come down like showers upon the fruitful earth,
And love, joy, hope, like flowers, spring in his path to birth.
Before him on the mountains shall peace the herald go,
And righteousness in fountains from hill to valley flow.

3 Kings shall fall down before him, and gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore him, his praise all people sing.
To him shall prayer unceasing and daily vows ascend,
His kingdom still increasing, a kingdom without end.

4 O'er every foe victorious, he on his throne shall rest,
From age to age more glorious, all blessing and all blest,
The tide of time shall never his covenant remove.
His name shall stand forever: that name to us is Love.

Parish Council updates

The emergency cold weather shelter is still planned to begin as soon as the agency has hired and trained the staff. The library door from the hall will be locked during this time. Those who need this shelter are in temporary and uncomfortable quarters in the city.

The office computer has been taken to a technician for review and should have a life of about 2 more years.

Members of Parish Council listed things that they hope to accomplish in the months that remain before the hoped for arrival of a new priest. These include cleaning and organization of some spaces in the church and painting some rooms including the hall.

Beginning the New Year Safely

Do you have medications in your cabinet or drawer that you no longer use, that are past their expiry date? These old medications, whether prescription or over the counter are dangerous to keep around. For safe disposal take them to the pharmacy where you purchased them. If you are in doubt about any particular item consult your physician or pharmacist.

This is also a good time to check your family first aid kit to see if it needs to be re-supplied.

Do you have an emergency kit in case of power failure or disaster? This might be a good time to consider that. Check the flashlight to see if it works. Do you have emergency candles? Is there a lighter or some matches with them?

Carnival—as Preparation for Lent

The folks in New Orleans have turned Mardi Gras into a season all on its own. They celebrate Mardi Gras from Epiphany to Shrove Tuesday. This is an excellent year to honour the principles of Carnival.

The tradition arises from of custom of ridding the house of all the good things like fats, and sweets, in order to prepare the house for the fasting of Lent. Few people fast during Lent any more but we kept the custom of one last celebration before Lent begins. Now, as Anglicans, we celebrate decorously and usually with pancakes and syrup and sausages.

We can't do a Shrove Tuesday dinner this year but we can still celebrate. We can dress up in our best Mardi Gras clothes, including a hat. We can laugh and enjoy one another's company. (There is lots and lots of humour in the Bible.)

Our parish will celebrate Carnival at the service on Feb 20th—please join in sharing this with us.

For Rick Monchak and members of the selection committee as we continue the process of searching for a rector.

For all who are at risk of COVID and all who are working to alleviate suffering.

For those who are cold and hungry in this city.

For those seeking healing and hope: Winn, Jill, Bryn, Stella, Phyllis, Connie, Kelsey, Bill, William and Sheila, Isabel, Esme, Pat, Ed, Dulcey. For the repose of the soul of Glenda Johansen and for her family as they grieve.

Prayer is an act of trust in God and an act of hope in the future. Prayer is not about getting what we wish for but about asking God to help those we love in whatever way is best for them. It is about helping us to accept God's will even if it is challenging. Jesus said, "let this cup pass from me, if it is your will."
